

MEDIA ADVISORY

To Our Friends from the Media,

The People's COalition to Monitor the 2007 ELECTIONS or BANTAY ELEKSYON '07 will hold a media briefing on March 26, 2007, Monday around 10 am at the Alex Grills along Matalino St., Brgy. Central, Quezon City. The briefing will provide the media with the monitoring coalition's general observations on the conduct of the May polls from national campaign preparation last year up to the start of the local campaign next week.

Task Force Bantay-Eleksyon '07 is a coalition of electoral stakeholders formed by the Consortium on Electoral Reforms (CER), composed of 45 national electoral reform organizations. It aims to conduct a comprehensive monitoring of the general conduct and processes of the May 2007 mid-term elections which will center on evaluating the performance of the Commission on elections and its deputized agencies. It will release weekly monitoring reports, a preliminary report a day after the elections and the final comprehensive report one month after.
